Alfie's Notes:

1/

Beanies, caps, mugs, coming through Surridge, just waiting on design team to give me images so I can advertise properly

ME Stash – Unlikely it's happening before ISB ;(

The Gorge Outdoors (supplier) gives us the best discount on ME over other brands they stock

Alpkit don't offer competitive discount

Neither do Taunton Leisure

Trekitt won't offer any discount

BCH slow at responding to emails and call me Ollie

Issue is stock levels:

- No sun hoodies in men's until Feb, only 2 colours in each gender and no overlap in terms of colour
- Lumiko T - not getting any stock until NEXT winter, limited stock in any mens colour currently, but good quantities in women's blue
- Micro T – none/bad stock in women's blue, good stock in mens

We go for these two fleeces because they're the cheaper options in the ME range, there are more expensive ones that may have stock... but they're more expensive.

I would like that both genders have the same items available in roughly the same colour which is currently not possible...

Yes we can look at other colours but we have to get it past the SU and there isn't loads of overlap between genders

Any (good) ideas are welcome
