

7. If you had to sum up being a Student Trainer in 3 words, what would they be?

Approachable because sometimes people come to you and ask you about Student Trainer

Organised there's always something that is going to go wrong

Open mindedness during the session people will always have another solution that can be taken into consideration